MEDIA ALERT

New Haven Mayor to Announce New Haven Acting-Police Chief

Following Chief Otoniel Reyes' Retirement Announced This Week

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Today, New Haven Mayor Justin Elicker will join members of the New Haven Police Department for a press conference to announce the incoming Acting-Chief of the New Haven Police Department. This press conference follows the news earlier this week where the City announced the retirement of current New Haven Police Chief, Otoniel Reyes, who has served the City for twenty-one years in the Department. The Chief's term ends in January of 2022; therefore, the Mayor is going to appoint an Acting-Chief to fill out the rest of the term.
